<sup>1</sup> Morningstar ranking out of 2,916, 1,780 and 739 domestic equity funds for three-, five- and ten-year performance, respectively.

Morningstar, Inc. is an independent service that rates and evaluates mutual funds on the basis of risk-adjusted performance. The highest Morningstar rating is five stars and the lowest is one star. Ratings are calculated from the fund's three-, five- and ten-year average annual returns in excess of 90-day T-bill returns. The top ten percent of the funds in an asset class receive five stars; the next 22.5% receive four stars; the next 35% receive three stars; the next 22.5% receive two stars and the bottom 10% receive one star. Ratings are subject to change every month.

The Value Line Mutual Fund Survey is an independent publication. The information in the enclosed issue was compiled and drafted by Value Line.

Lipper Analytical Services calculates rankings based on total returns of funds within each category. Lipper rankings change monthly and do not reflect the effects of sales charges.
